DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 8/6/07 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-5 and 12-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kubota et al. (US 4132350) in view of Marechal et al. (US 4899037).

Kubota et al. disclose a magnetic card and transfer tape wherein the magnetic card comprises a base layer structure, a magnetic layer, a masking layer for covering the magnetic layer, a printing layer formed from two different colors of ink having a uniform thickness and a protective layer thereon (see Fig 7; col. 3, line 20 to col. 4, line 27). The transfer sheet is formed from a backing layer 10, a protective layer, a printed layer having printed and non-printed regions of different colors wherein this layer has a uniform thickness 5, a color layer 4 and a magnetic layer 3 bonded to a layer 1b1 which corresponds to the claimed adhesive layer (See Fig 14). The reference is silent with respect to the claimed coercivity of the magnetic layer.

Marechal et al. teach that a suitable coercivity for a magnetic coating in a magnetic card structure is 300-600 Oe which reads on the claimed range.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to choose an optimal coercivity value from within the range of 300-600 Oe taught by Marechal for use in the magnetic card and transfer tape structures taught by Kubota et al. in order to achieve the desired recording performance.

With regard to the claim limitation requiring a "uniform" thickness of the printed layer, the figures in Kubota are relied upon to show that the printed layer taught therein meets the claim limitation requiring that the thickness of the printed layer is "uniform." The examiner notes that the term "uniform" is a broad term. There is no recitation in the claims regarding the particular parameters of uniformity that must be met (for example, a certain maximum surface roughness). Thus, the term must be assigned the broadest reasonable interpretation consistent with the prior art. The examiner maintains that one of ordinary skill in the art would view the printing layer taught by Kubota as being "uniform."

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant presented arguments in the after final amendment filed 5/30/07. Those arguments were addressed in the advisory action mailed 6/18/07. No new arguments have been presented.
